EQUINE NATIONAL RESCUE RIDE 2008 SET FOR OCTOBER 19

On October 19, 2008 thousands of horse lovers across the nation will pull on their boots or lace up their sneakers to ride or walk to raise funds for the horse related charity of their choice. Similar to a walkathons the National Rescue Ride will bring together thousands of people to across the country to demonstrate that abuse, neglect and shipping of horses across the border for slaughter is unacceptable. It is the nation's biggest effort ever to help horses.

Riders and walkers wishing to participate to support Indiana Horse Rescue at Mane Trails, Inc. Horseman's Campground & the Indiana Bridle Trails in Hoosier National Forest located in Paoli, Indiana! should go to www.nationalrescueride.org to register, pay a $20. fee, print their sponsorship form and start raising money by signing up sponsors for themselves. There will be a buffet breakfast at check-in, a National Rescue Ride T-shirt for all riders/walkers and prizes for the most money raised. The day will end with a great feeling of equine camaraderie.

So on Sunday, October 19, whether in the saddle or in your sneakers, join us to help America's abused, neglected and unwanted horses by being a part of this great national effort at the National Rescue Ride!
